

Code of Conduct

S&B Studio held @ Soma Center

Practitioners in violation of the Code of Conduct will be asked to leave

1. Enter/Exit the Studio quietly, especially if arriving late or departing early.
2. No outside food or drink. Personal plastic water bottles/carafes with sealed lids allowed.
3. Please leave your shoes at the door. You may bring house slippers to wear in the Studio.
4. No cell phone use - including, but not limited to, phone conversations, texting, photography, video recording, voice recording, and social media posting.
5. No earbuds, headphones, earplugs, or other electronic devices. They make it difficult for our Staff to make announcements and give instruction.
6. Mind your language. S&B Studio does not allow the use of offensive or obscene language.
7. If Practitioner appears intoxicated, he/she will be asked to leave the premises.
8. Do not interact with the model(s) when observing or drawing. This means NO talking and NO touching the model. Practitioner is not permitted to ask the model for poses, changes in poses, etc.
9. Do not photograph or otherwise record the model's face, figure, or a part thereof at anytime, anywhere. Do not photograph or record the class.
10. Everyone is a learner. Please do not loom over or interrupt fellow Practitioners while working.

Thank you for making our live figure drawing class a safe, comfortable, and exciting learning space.
